Suit ferowing Out of Insuccessful

Search for Two Red Quilts. The suit of Ellen Lectair vs. Anna P. Boynton, whereby the plaintiff seekt damages of $5.000 for great anxiety of mind, pain to body, stekness and injurs to character, credit and reputation caused by the defendant, was entered yesterday in Chittenden county court. The plaintiff sets up that on June 7, 1969, the defendant appeared before J. J. Enright and G. W. Deberville, then tices of the peace, claiming that on June law, there had been stolen from her dwelling house and hed quilt, white on the back side and with colored blocks on the front side, and a quilt, white on the back side and with stuffed roses on the front side. It is set up that the defendant stated that she had reason believe that the quilts could be found in the house at 194 North street by one Louise Leclair and Ellen Le-
